

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, MAY 16, 1893.

NO. 22

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—John Robinson's circus will exhibit here June 13.

—George Hughes, formerly of Lincoln, is seriously ill with lung trouble.

—W. S. Jackson is having a foundation laid for his residence, which will be a brick.

—Blondell & Conkling's Comedy Company will be at Jackson's Opera House the 18th.

—Lot Reid has cheerfully returned from West Virginia and likes Laurel better than ever.

—Henry Tinsley, a son of Press Tinsley, died at Pittsburg Saturday and was buried Sunday.

—R. M. Jackson sold his trotting stallion, Judge Clark, to Geo. Anderson, of Boyle, for $950.

—Judge E. C. Owens, of Olathe, Kas., formerly of this county, is visiting his many friends here.

—There was an ice cream supper at the old post-office Saturday night for the benefit of the kindergarten.

—The musical for the benefit of the Methodist church, South, at Mrs. W. H. Jackson's, was well attended.

—The L. & N. had about 40 hands at work making a switch from the depot to the London Manufacturing Co.'s building last week.

—Dr. D. T. Hall, aged 71, and Mrs. Sarah Johnson, aged 40, were married in the county clerk's office Friday. Rev. R. L. Ewell officiating.

—There are several candidates for the Legislature on the republican side in this county and the chances are that some good democrat can beat them all.

—Commonwealth's Attorney W. R. Ramsey was at home Sunday from Barboursville, where he was attending court. He says there have been 8 convictions so far this term.

—A petition has been filed with the county clerk, with 138 signatures, asking that the county judge order an election at Pittsburg, this county, on July 15 to see whether or not they shall continue to sell liquor there unlawfully or legally.

—Mr. Mack Barnett, who has been J. T. Brown's salesman for a number of years, was the widower mentioned in our last. Miss Mary Stillings is the bride and the marriage occurred Thursday evening. The happy couple went to house-keeping the same day.

—Dr. John Raider, who shot Hurst at Lexington, is well known here and was here about 10 days ago. He has a good practice in Jackson county, runs a drug store and has been doing well, but has been drinking considerably lately. Perks Bullock, who was arrested as an accomplice, was sent to the penitentiary several years ago for robbing the mails at Livingston.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Fred Kissling, of Louisville, and Miss Emma Von Grunigen, of this county, were married at the bride's father's, John Von Grunigen Friday.

—George B. Ellison and Miss Lillie Gooch, the pretty daughter of Squire Billy Gooch, were married Sunday at Mr. Nathan Singleton's, in the Waynesburg vicinity. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Singleton.

—Carlyle Harris, the murderer of his girl wife, was engaged to be married at the time of his taking off to a crank woman named Carrie Jones, who believed him innocent and thought he would be pardoned. But Mr. Harris was forced to disappoint her, and instead of a marriage there was a funeral, a much more fitting ceremony in such cases made and provided.

—In 1862 Lewis Hawkins, a rebel sympathizer, was attacked by five home guards, shot through the lungs, badly beaten and left for dead. In 1868 he met one of his tormentors at Salvisa and shot him dead. He was indicted, but managed to escape and went to Texas. Last week he came back and procuring a pardon from Gov. Brown, filed it at Harrodsburg and will in future reside in the land of his birth.

—At last the wasted energy of Niagara Falls is to be utilized. The tunnel constructed at a cost of nearly $5,000,000 has just been completed, and it is proposed to transmit electric power, generated by water passing through the tunnel, to Albany, N. Y., and intermediate cities, and possibly to New York city.

—John Hurst, a Lexington grocer, was fatally shot by John Raider, a mountaineer, in Lexington. Hurst killed Raider's brother several years ago and Raider at the time swore he would kill Hurst and kept his word by rushing into his store and shooting him six times. Raider was arrested and placed in jail.

—Depressed by ill health, Warren G. Butterworth, of Warren, Mass., committed suicide by shooting himself through the head with a rifle. His daughter attempted to prevent her father from doing the rash act and received in her brain the bullet that went through his head. Both died instantly.

—Ten men were killed in the Red Jacket shaft of the Calumet and Hecla mine in Michigan Sunday.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—The many Lancaster friends of Mrs. James H. Brown are glad to hear of her appointment as postmaster at Mt. Vernon.

—Miss Sue Doty, who has been dangerously ill for some time, is rapidly recovering. Mrs. C. C. Stormes is also some better at this writing.

—Deputy Collectors C. M. Randall and R. A. Burnside have just returned from a moonshine raid. They cut up a large illicit still near Big Hill, in Madison county.

—The fellow Hoffman, who made the brutal assault upon the little girl in lower Garrard, has not yet been captured. It is thought that he has left the country. Gov. Brown has offered a reward of $300 for his capture.

—The manager of the band has secured the services of Prof. Rozell, of Michigan, who is an expert clarinet player. He is a barber by trade and will locate in Lancaster permanently and open a shop over Stormes' furniture store.

—Mrs. A. H. Rice left Saturday to join her husband, who is engaged in the mercantile business and located at Nashville. Mr. J. Mort Rothwell has returned from a trip to Washington. Mr. Charley Page, of Dennison, Texas, is here on a visit to friends. Miss Mamie Curry attended the funeral of Miss Alma Hagan at Richmond. Mrs. W. G. Dunlap and children have returned to their home at Camp Nelson.

—Twenty-four additions have been made to the Presbyterian church in this place during the meeting that has been in progress since the 2d inst., and the interest in the services seems to be on the increase. Rev. Donald McDonald, the Synodical evangelist, is conducting the services, assisted by Rev. J. R. Terry, pastor of the church. Meetings are held at 3 p. m. and 7 p. m. each day. Quite a number of members of the other churches attend the meetings and enjoy the excellent discourses of the distinguished preacher. It is not known when the meeting will close.

—The potato bug, the lady bug and various other bugs have announced their arrival to prey upon the vegetation that is springing up in the gardens of the town. No address of welcome has been delivered to them by any spread-eagle orator, nor have they been tendered the freedom of the city, but they are here all the same, accompanied by myriads of ants, that are covering the peach trees and devouring the tender leaves and buds that are putting out upon the branches. The ant has developed into a pest of greater proportions than the caterpillar, as his unceasing vigilance enables him to work more destruction in a given time than any other insect. The potato bug is said to have originated in Colorado and for a long time it was called the "Colorado bug." Its origin, however, is as much a mystery as who was the author of "Junius," who struck Billy Patterson or who killed Cock Robin. It is marvelous that no one has discovered a successful mode of exterminating these bugs that destroy the most useful vegetable known to the world. As conventions are the order of the day, would it not be well to call a "Bug Destroying Convention," to be held some day during the World's Fair, at Chicago?

The desire to be considered gallant in respect the wishes of the fair sex is often the cause of concessions upon the part of men they would greatly prefer to avoid. The presence of women—like J. Ellen Foster at political conventions demanding an endorsement of female suffrage and by appeals to the courtesy of the members, receiving recognition and resolutions of approval—is an example of the modern drift of politics, the reasons for which are not easy of solution. Woman in her sphere deserves the highest respect that can possibly be shown her; but when she leaves the domain for which she was intended; gives up the sacred environments of home and assumes the duties and responsibilities intended for man, it is impossible to escape the conclusion that to a greater or less extent she has forfeited her right to the sympathy and protection she would otherwise have. The right to vote would imply the right to attend conventions, to preside over deliberative bodies, to act upon committees, to deliver addresses and to play the part usually assigned to the professional politician. It may be said that the appearance of women upon the arena of politics would purify the political atmosphere, but this would not likely prove true. The result would doubtless be to degrade women without improving man. Aside from this, nature has imposed obstacles in the way of the performance of many acts by women that do not apply to men. If for instance Mrs. Polvina Jones Squeezelant should attend a convention and be elected chairman and in the midst of her address should get a telegram that her daughter, Nancy Francis Ann, had been suddenly taken down with the measles, the mumps, the whooping cough and the phthisic and the baby had cut a tooth and could not be put to sleep by anybody but ma, what could the chairman do but resign her gavel and hasten home to look after the urchins? Imagine the feelings of the female invested with suffrage upon receiving from her liege lord the mandate that if she did not vote as he did, no spring bonnet should adorn her political head, and the belle who received notice from her favorite beaux that his choice at the polls must be her choice if she expected to continue perched upon the top round of the ladder of his affections. J. Ellen has doubtless returned to her home, satisfied that she will soon be called upon to take part in the political management of the country and feels better for the reception she has received but she will become wiser as she grows older and have ample time to brood over the injustice of man.

DANVILLE.

—Senator R. J. Breckinridge will return to Frankfort Tuesday.

—Post-master Van Pelt is interesting himself in getting up a proper observance of Decoration Day.

—The magistrates did not meet Monday, as they usually do in May. But little routine business was transacted in the county court.

—A great and glorious game of base ball between the Miamis of Oxford, O., and Centre College team was won by the last named Saturday, 22 to 9.

—Ed Gaines, of Junction City, the defendant in something less than 10,000 whisky cases in the circuit court, has opened a saloon in Lexington.

—Miss Nellie Tilford, of Wichita, Kas., is visiting her uncles, Messrs. H. C. and J. T. Mock, this county. She is a daughter of Harry Tilford, formerly of this county, and her mother was Miss Jennie Hughey.

—Mr. C. R. McDowell, of this place, is associated with Gen. Walter Evans, of Louisville, as plaintiff's attorney in the suit of "Pantaloen" Mulcahy against the city of Lexington for $10,000 damages for false imprisonment.

—Rev. J. W. Lynch and Mr. J. K. Thomas, of this place, attended the Baptist convention at Nashville last week and this. Mr. Cullon, a student from the Baptist Seminary, Louisville, preached at the Baptist church Sunday.

—Elder J. B. McGinn, of Versailles, former pastor of the Danville Christian church, preached for his old congregation Sunday night. Rev. C. F. W. Hubbard, of Centre College faculty, preached for the same congregation Sunday morning. Elder J. S. Kendrick, the pastor, preached at Parksville Sunday. Prof. Thomas Dodd, of Vanderbilt University, preached for the Methodists Sunday. Prof. Dodd and Post-master Van Pelt, of this place, were classmates at Transylvania University before the war.

The commissioner of pensions estimates the whole number of men who were in the Union armies at 2,300,000, of whom he says that 1,200,000 are still living. It is estimated that of the whole number 199,000 deserted and so lost their right to a pension, while the records show that 49,315 were drafted men and 58,843 enlisted as substitutes for a price. The total of these three classes is 707,158. Supposing the same proportion of these as of the whole number to be living, there are of the 1,200,000 living Union soldiers $40,000 who have a pensionable status. But the commissioner's report shows that there are 687,900 now drawing pensions as invalids and 442,326 claiming pensions as invalids, altogether 1,130,188 disabled or claiming to have been disabled in a pensionable degree! This is within 70,000 of the whole number of those who served now living, and almost 300,000 more than the whole number of patriotic volunteers. This is a clear demonstration that the pension roll is burdened with fraudulent pensioners.—N. Y. World.

—Gen. Edward D. Townsend, a name very familiar to readers of the newspapers during all the years of our awful war, is recalled by his death in Washington City. Nearly every order issued by the war department during those four years bears his signature as assistant adjutant general.

—The private car used by President Lincoln 30 years ago, which has for some time been used as a boarding car for section men on a Colorado railroad, is being returned in its former condition at Omaha and will be taken to the World's Fair.

—Prentice Tiller, the most noted crook for his age in the country, escaped from the Michigan penitentiary by boxing himself up with a lot of freight and springing the lid as soon as the wagon bearing the boxes got outside the prison walls.

—Dennis Davidson, of Mitchell, Ind., was shot and killed by the accidental discharge of a gun he was hunting with. The gun was a very common one, but has a history, nine persons having been accidentally shot with it before Davidson.

—Councilman Logan Hocker, of Lexington, has been indicted for securing a contract from the city and then dividing the proceeds with the contractor.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—There are 1,100 names on the rolls of the four churches in Stanford.

—Rev. John S. Sweeney, of Paris, had to pay $138 to make good the shortage of Mrs. Long, his daughter, who was postmaster at Midway.

—Catholics of the Covington diocese have purchased a $30,000 tract of land in the central part of that city and will erect a $100,000 cathedral.

—The Rev. Lewis W. Burton, rector of St. John's church, Richmond, Va., has been called to St. Andrew's church, in Louisville, and will probably accept the call.

—Rev. F. E. Cooley, the new rector of Trinity church, Danville, preached in the College Chapel here Sunday afternoon, and will hold services there again Sunday, 28, at 4 p. m.

—Over 1,000 delegates are attending the Southern Baptist convention at Nashville and the city is full of other visitors. Chief Justice Jonathan Haralson, of Alabama, was re-elected president.

—The first Bible in the language of the Gilbert Islanders was printed by the American Bible Society April 12. This translation has occupied Rev. Hiram Bingham, a missionary to those islands, 34 years.

—At Columbus, O., Rev. G. W. Britton, of the Methodist church, held services at prayer meeting and on his way home got tip-tilt-drunk. He became boisterous and was placed in the police station.

—Schweinfurth, the Illinois fraud who calls himself Christ, is on the turf. He owns several blooded horses and one of them has been put in the hands of a well known trainer to be campaigned during the coming season.

—The meeting at the Methodist church in this city closed last Wednesday evening, after continuing ten days, with 28 additions. Dr. W. T. Bolling, of Winchester, did the preaching and it was certainly well done.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

—On last Sunday St. Bartholomew's church, New York, raked in a contribution of $80,000. Of the collections in St. Bartholomew's in the last four years, amounting to more than a million dollars, nearly four-fifths have been dispensed in charities.

—The people of Owensboro raised $4,500 to pay for the Sam Jones meetings. They erected a special tabernacle and after paying all expenses, turned over considerably more than $2,000 to the evangelist for his week's work. The number of conversions is estimated at 719.

—John Culleton, who recently abandoned the priesthood of the Roman Catholic church and got married, seems inclined to utilize the notoriety he has gained in order to make some money. He invites the public to hear him make exposures, and, as he elegantly expressed it, "to see the cat skinned."

—The Sunday night union services draw like sticking plasters. The Methodist church could not near hold the crowd that went there. Rev. W. E. Ellis preached a fine discourse, being pressed into service after he got there, owing to the absence of Rev. J. H. Julian, who had to go to McKinney. The next service will be held at the Presbyterian church.

—There is now no probability of a revision of the Presbyterian creed by the General Assembly, which meets at Washington next week. Out of a total of 225 Presbyteries, scarcely 120 seem likely to be found favoring the first attempt of the Presbyterian Church to revise the creed, which is 30 less than the constitutional law makes necessary to secure the adoption of any proposed change in the confession.

—Nearly all the young ladies in Hobart, Ind., have joined the Young Women's Anti-Saloon Association and have adopted as one of their by-laws that "no young man who frequents the saloons will be recognized by any member of the organization and that no member will keep company with a young man who drinks." The young men have the alternative now to give up the saloons or their sweethearts. It is not hard to prophesy which they will choose if the girls have the courage to hold out faithful to their vows.

—Rev. Percy G. Elsom preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning on the subject of "Brotherly Love," and the profound attention of the many good points that he established in his discourse, while his reference to the church members who have gone to their reward since he was pastor here some years ago was touching and elicited tears. Mr. Elsom is now pastor of a church he has built at Fincastle, Va., at a cost of $6,000 some of which remains unpaid and his visit in this section is to solicit funds with which to wipe out the debt.

EVERY FRIDAY.

The Michigan Senate has passed a bill of a novel nature. It provides that when a man is convicted of drunkenness he will be given two alternatives—to pay the fine assessed or give bond that he will go to a Keely cure and get rid of the liquor habit. Should the culprit be unable to pay the charges of the cure the county from which he is sent is to bear the expense. Keely cures will become decidedly more popular when justices have the right to order a prisoner to them or to jail. The sentence might be as follows: "Stand up, John Smith. You bloated, red-nosed disgrace to humanity—you have been convicted after a fair trial by a jury of your peers of a crime that will wreck your own life and make you a by-word of reproach and dishonor, besides disappointing and grieving all who care for you. The sentence of the court is therefore that you be remanded to the custody of the jailer, who shall carry you to a Keely cure, there to remain for the period prescribed for a cure, and may God have mercy on your sinful soul."

The National League of Republican Clubs closed its session at Louisville Friday, after electing W. W. Tracy, of Illinois, president, and adopting a series of resolutions, which, after taking a crack at creation, declare for woman's suffrage and against gambling in futures. The body has no right to bind the republican party in these resolutions, their action being merely of the nature of suggestion. The party will not endorse the woman suffrage plank at any rate and will not till it thinks it needs them, as it did when it gave negroes the right of suffrage.

The republicans advocate the doctrine of no taxation without representation, but they kick like mules when it is proposed to reverse the proposition. The charters of the fourth-class cities provide that no one shall vote in a municipal election until he has paid his taxes and the republicans in the legislature are fighting the clause with all their might and main. It is to be hoped, however, that the little handful of members will not be able to dictate to the tremendous democratic majority in this or any other matter.

SECRETARY ION B. NALL, of the Kentucky Press Association, announces that daily papers will be entitled to three representatives, semi-weeklies to two and weeklies to one at the approaching meeting and the excursion to the World's Fair, each representative being allowed to take a lady with him. This gives the Interior Journal man the right to take three ladies. Now is your chance to apply. Please don't all speak at once. Sealed proposals received till the 27th at noon.

DELEGATE RAWLINS, of Utah, is trying to imitate the Conkling act. Because the president refused to accept his recommendations in regard to official appointments in his Territory, he has tendered the resignation of his seat in Congress. This is pretty tough on Grover and the country, but at last accounts the government at Washington was moving along as if nothing had happened to disturb the even tenor of its way.

SECRETARY NALL says that he will adhere to the constitution and confine representation at the Kentucky Press Association to actual editors and publishers. Temporary reporters and outside friends will be barred. We hope Bro. Nall will stick to this, but having filled his office for two terms and knowing how hard it is to keep out interlopers, we fear he will fail of his good intention.

It is hardly expected that the creature will rise above the creator, but Secretary of State Headless, as the Commercial cartoonist is pleased to call him, is catching it for his extreme servility from many quarters. It is bad enough to be called a figure head, but that is preferable to pumpkin head, as his pictures make him appear.

Through the efforts of Gov. Underwood, a $10,000 monument to the Confederate dead, buried at Chicago is nearing completion and will be unveiled July 25, with appropriate ceremonies. Gen. John B. Gordon, of Georgia, will deliver an oration and other distinguished Confederate soldiers will take part in the exercises.

The Richmond Register says the recent grand jury there returned 129 indictments, but only four are for murder. Four for murder and the courts only four months apart! To use an old expression, "if you 'but' at that, what would you kick at?"

The Harrodsburg Democrat has secured the contract to print Mrs. E. D. Potts' Illustrated Kentucky, but it will continue to be issued from Lexington. This insures that it will be well done, as the Democrat's facilities for fine printing are first class.

In Owensboro where Sam Jones has just fired the public heart, over 1,000 women have banded together to wage a relentless and continuous crusade against the 60 saloons that flourish by dispensing liquid damnation to the citizens. Their plan of operations in the first place will be similar to the famous temperance crusade of 15 years ago, that is, by singing, praying and exhorting in front of and also in the saloons when feasible. If this moral suasion fails of its purpose, then the law and the ballot box will be appealed to. Owensboro makes more whiskey and drinks more than any town of its size in the world, but its manufacture and sale have got to be stopped, for Sam Jones himself hath said it and the women have inscribed it on their banners, and determined to know no such word as fail. May they come out more than conquerors.

The good news comes from Washington that the Augean stables are to be cleaned from stem to stern. Logan Carlisle, a chip of the old block, who thinks it a sufficient excuse for turning a republican out because he wants his place for a democrat, is taking off the heads of chiefs of departments in a way they and the civil service reformers despise and in a manner that sends delight to the hearts of the boys in the trenches. Let the civil service humbug be suspended in all the departments till democrats fill the offices and then it will be soon enough to discuss the question.

MR. BAILEY, of Carroll county, has a way of speaking out in meeting that is refreshing. Saturday a number of legislators refused to vote on a bill to which there was no good objection, thereby breaking a quorum, when he got up and charged that they did so in order to lengthen the session and waste the public money. The newspapers have been saying this for some time, but Mr. Bailey is the first member to have the courage to stand up and tell his fellow members what he thinks of them.

The directors of the World's Fair are such fine hair splitters that they could no doubt divide one north-east by the south-west. Congress directed that the buildings should remain closed on the first day of the week commonly known as Sunday. The law will be observed to the letter, if not the purpose. The buildings will be closed, but the grounds will be open on Sundays, as other days, when half the regular price of admission will be charged.

COMMISSIONER LOCHREN has already inaugurated reforms in the pension bureau that will save fully $20,000,000 this year in pensions. He has ordered that Raum's noted "completed files" order be revoked, under which certain pension attorneys were favored, and that the former system of rigid examination be resumed. The country has needed an honest man at the head of this bureau for some time and from indications the right man is at last in the right place.

JURIES as a general thing are apt to go for the railroads when they get a chance. A verdict of $8,500 has just been awarded a lady in Marion county, against the L. & N., because one of the defendant's train frightened her horse and made him turn her carriage over, though she was not seriously hurt. The judgment is very naturally regarded as excessive and an appeal will no doubt be granted.

THAT lawyers differ fully as much as doctors, is shown in yesterday's Courier-Journal. In response to the question whether or not the convicts could be worked on the county roads, under the constitution, a number of lawyers express opinions widely different, though a majority seem inclined to the belief that they can not.

THE Springfield News says that Judge M. C. Sautley is mighty good timber to make a governor out of, and suggests him for the candidate next time. The suggestion is of the nature to prove that the one who made it is a man of angosity and general understanding in the neighborhood.

THE prohibitionists have determined to have a grand rally at Chicago the latter part of August. The two shows ought to draw a tremendous crowd to the Windy City. Let's all wait to go then.

THE London Echo is a paper of national reputation. The New York Press (?) makes mention of its recent ill luck and takes occasion to pay both the paper and its editor a compliment.

THE appointment of Gen. John B. Castleman, of Louisville, as a member of the board of visitors to the Naval Academy by the president, is both complimentary and deserved.

THIS is the week for the president to take up the Kentucky collectorships and the applicants are on the qui vive.

—After all the courts had denied her a re-hearing and the governor had refused to pardon her, Mrs. Dr. Stivers, of Louisville, who so cruelly treated the little girl, skipped out and has since given the officers the dodge.

—The failure of the Columbia National Bank of Chicago has extended over a large Territory. Saturday eight banks in different towns in Indiana closed their doors; also six in Michigan, two in Illinois and two in Ohio.

—By the assignment of R. R. Robinson & Co., bankers, the Knights of Pythias lodge of Wilmington, Del., loses $70,700, the order having recently placed a large amount in the institution, which was thought to be gilt edge.

—Josiah Young has been appointed post master at Crawford, Laurel county, Mrs. Elmira Bell at Mt. Pisgah, Wayne county, G. B. Thompson at Woodstock, Pulaski county, and L. K. Moore, at Young's Creek, Whitley county.

—At Gothen, Ind., two little children of Charles McCrantz ran out to meet him when he was driving up the lane to his home. The horse became frightened and running away ran over both children, killing them almost instantly.

—Louis F. Price, a conductor on the O. & M. railway, was murdered in the most cowardly manner by John Terrell, a Lawrence county ruffian, near Seymour, Ind. The assassin was taken to Belford, where there is talk of a lynching.

—By the election of another Senator the republicans have secured a majority on joint ballot in the Rhode Island Legislature, and will be able to elect the State officers, or by preventing an election allow the present republican officers to hold over.

—The New York Herald has been formed into a stock company. Mr. Bennett's health is not of the best and if anything serious was to happen to him his worldly affairs in their present condition would not be left as he would have them left, therefore it is said that he has organized this company.

THE LOUISVILLE STORE.

A Good Reason.
"Why do you ask me for my autograph?" asked the poet who liked to hear words of praise.
"Because you are the only one who can write it," said the applicant meekly.—Vogue.

Probably.
"I wonder what a man's sensations are when he is struck by lightning?" said Dawson.
"I should think he'd feel more or less thunderstruck," said Hicks.—Harper's Bazar.

All at Sea.
Old Gentleman—Been over to Europe, eh? Did the vessel you traveled on make good time?
Little Boy—I couldn't tell. There weren't any telegraph poles.—Good News.

One Way.
First Toper—What would you do if you had 5,000 francs?
Second Ditto—Do? I would live for five days as if I enjoyed a yearly income of 365,000 francs.—Matin.

An Infantile Correction.
"I wants some bed an wugar," said Mollie.
"Don't say bed an wugar," said Bobbie. "Say bread and sugar."—Harper's Bazar.

A Particular Kind.
"Does Irvington keep a carriage since he married?"
"Oh, yes, I see him wheeling it 'most every day."—Indianapolis Journal.

—The saddest feature about the Louisville meeting of the republican clubs is that it omitted to make any mention of the force bill.

DEATH.—Miss Sarah Gooch, aged 19, upon whom the operation of laparotomy was performed for appendicitis, died last week. She was a daughter of J. M. Gooch, of the Waynesburg neighborhood.

ONE of the witnesses to the recent tragedy here, who hails from a mountain town, was so frightened that he ran out of the room into another and got as far back under the bed as the walls would let him.

THE post-office department rules that you can dun a delinquent as much as you choose on a postal card, providing you make no threats that would injure the standing or condition of the man addressed.

THE Advocate thinks that S. V. Rowland stands the best chance for the collectorship. He is a mighty good man, socially, politically and from a business standpoint, and would fill the office most acceptably.

CEL. D. G. SLAUGHTER is again demonstrating his confidence in the virtue of printer's ink. This office has just completed an order for circulars advertising his Green Briar Springs, which required 20,000 impressions.

THE State Medical Society elected Dr. Stewart, of Frankfort, president and elected Drs. Steele Bailey and J. B. Kincaid secretary and treasurer respectively. Resolutions asking the Legislature to pass certain laws regulating the practice of medicine and protesting against abolishing the Feeble Minded Institute were adopted. Middlesboro was chosen as the next place of meeting.

THE Lancaster Record-Homestead says that Prof. J. C. Gordon, who has taught for several years the most successful and satisfactory school in the history of Garrard College, having declined to make an engagement for another year, the trustees have just closed a contract with Prof. M. Elliott, of Kirksville, for a two years' lease, beginning in September. Prof. Elliott is an experienced and successful educator and the community is to be congratulated on securing his services.

BRIGHT FERRELL says our statement that that his brother, Mack, had no visible means of support does him an injustice. He has still an interest in the rentals of his father's property and besides he helped Bright frequently on the farm. Mr. Ferrell also says that when his brother's side of the case is heard, opinion in reference to the case will change. We hope so, as we have nothing but kindly feelings for the boy, and would not add a feather's weight to the load he now seems to have to carry.

OUR old friend, Henry C. Jones, formerly of this county, but now cashier of the People's National Bank, of Ennis, Texas, is in trouble. A private letter to a Somerset man, says the Reporter, tells about him shooting a man. He was recently forced to foreclose an $8,000 mortgage against a man named McCarthy. Bad feeling arose in consequence and McCarthy meeting Mr. Jones in the post-office, slapped him in the face. To this Mr. Jones responded by shooting him in the side, inflicting a painful, though not dangerous wound.

WHILE digging around an out-house a few days ago, Mr. J. W. Adams, of Rowland, found the decomposed body of a white infant. A search is being made by the citizens of that place for the mother and probable murderers, but without avail so far. It is probably better for the child to have been taken out of this cruel world before it had tasted of the bitterness thereof, but the hand that removed the life from its little body evidently did it to hide shame and not as an act prompted by a kind heart, and should therefore be punished to the full extent of the law.

FOR disturbing the worshippers at Neal's Creek a few Sunday afternoons since, Jeff Hale was fined $20 in Judge Varnon's court Saturday. Hale really deserved a severer fine, as the proof showed that he cuffed a boy and raved and swore like a madman. Hale also had his examining trial for shooting at Mose Berry with intent to kill and was held to the circuit court. He shot four times at Berry, but failed to hit him, and then Berry ran him off the face of the earth nearly with a hoe, although there were more loads in his pistol. Berry testified that he was a pretty good sprinter himself, but Hale gained about 10 feet on him every jump in the famous race.

A NUMBER of her young friends "stormed" Miss Edna Courts Saturday night and had a most enjoyable time. Miss Edna proved herself a very charming hostess.

THE Blondell & Conkling Co. arrived on time and were to perform last night. We are authorized by Mr. Blondell to say that if after the show is over any person thinks he hasn't got the worth of his money, it will be refunded to him.

THE Record was right. The youths from the "jay" town, familiarly known as Lancaster, beat our kid base ball team 13 to 7 on our grounds here Friday afternoon. Most of the scores were made in the first three innings, but after that the game was quite interesting.

THE exterior of Walton's Opera House is being beautified now. The interior will receive attention later on, and by next season the fresco and scenic artist will have changed its appearance so completely that the most regular of its patrons will not know it. Already the best theatre in this part of Kentucky, it will be "out of sight" when the curtain rises for the first performance next fall.

A YOUNG man from Lancaster came over Sunday and brought another youth with him. While here the youth obtained permission to take his girl driving, promising to be back in time so that the other young man could reach Lancaster in order to fill an engagement at 4 o'clock. Instead he kept the buggy till after that hour and when he returned, the y. m. quietly got into the buggy and left the youth to meander home the best he could. Up to the hour that we went to press we had not heard the result, but the youth went away breathing threatenings and slaughter.

WITHOUT BAIL.—So far as was developed in the examining trial of Mack Ferrell for killing Sam Engleman, it appears to have been a cold-blooded murder, at least that seems to be the opinion of Judge Varnon, who very properly held the accused to circuit court without bail. At 10 o'clock Friday, both sides being ready, an army of witnesses were called and sworn. The prosecution was represented by Messrs. J. B. Paxton, R. J. Breckinridge and R. C. Warren, while Messrs. W. H. Miller, Hill & McRoberts and W. G. Welch appeared for the defense. C. V. Gentry was the first witness called and he testified in almost the identical words printed in our last issue, he having made the statement to us upon which the article was written. Mr. Gentry further testified that when Engleman fell it was partially under the table. He pulled the body out and there was no pistol either under it or near it, and he could discover none in feeling on the outside of his pockets. Only three other witnesses were examined—Thos. Hurley, J. C. Reid and J. W. Bright. They corroborated Gentry in essential particulars, though none saw him move the body. They all agreed that at the time Engleman was shot he was examining the cards that had been dealt him and that some minutes—one to three—had elapsed between the quarrel and the shooting. After Reid had testified the prosecution announced that it would close in chief at that point. The attorneys for the defense held a consultation and decided not to show his hand, after seeing as much of the other's as possible, and the judge announced his decision as above. Great interest was manifested in the trial, the Court-House being packed with people, many coming from Boyle and Garrard, where the dead man was well and favorably known.

THE KEELEY CURE AND C. O. SPRINGS.—A reporter of this paper spent a few hours of Saturday evening at the Keeley Institute at Crab Orchard and had the pleasure of seeing a portion of the great and good work that is being done there for the unfortunate who have tarried too long at the bowl, as well as those who have contracted the fearful morphine habit. There are some 55 or 60 patients there now, who are at all stages of the game; some who have on still the fearful "jags" they came there with; others who have sobered up sufficiently to be termed respectable beings and others who are almost riddled of the dreadful "diseases" that have almost wrecked their bodies and blighted their hopes. It, to the writer, was a manly sight to see men and women, who were once prominent in many vocations in life, and who had yielded to the ruin of liquors and drugs, trying to regain their foothold and fighting for a redemption. There have been over 400 patients treated there and the per cent. that have gone back into their old ruts is so small that it is almost incalculable. Of the 400 treated, a little over 150 were women; the majority for the morphine habit, but quite a number for whisky and tobacco. With the men, whisky is the ruling evil, and many an old red nose was visible when the writer was there. Mr. Hofmann, the genial host, says he never saw a more orderly and gentlemanly crowd than he has had the entire year and one month that the institution has been in existence there. As before stated in this paper, Mr. Hofmann is a "graduate" and a firmer believer in the efficacy of the treatment than he does not live. He is expecting a large crowd at the Springs this year and he will not be disappointed, if the number of promises that have been made him amount to anything. It would be hard to find a more pleasant place to spend the summer than at Crab Orchard Springs.

PICTURES, PICTURES!—The Rowland Gallery is in motion and playing a land office business. Come one, come all. Satisfaction guaranteed. Frank Cordier.

THE reorganized Danville base ball club, A. M. King, manager, has challenged the defunct INTERIOR JOURNAL to cross bats. That looks very much like an attempt to crow over a dead man.

YESTERDAY was a good day for ducks, but after enjoying the several days of fine weather, the human family was not specially delighted with it. While the rain was pouring down it was quite refreshing to receive a dispatch from the signal service to look out for "slight showers."

For several nights lately Mr. Chris V. Gentry's dogs have barked a great deal and sounds of footsteps were frequently heard. He got up and looked around a number of times, but not until Friday night did he see a living being, and then he was not close enough to distinguish who the party was. On Saturday morning he went to his meat house and found a couple of middlings gone. There were in the house some 15 or 16 hams, but they were not touched and Mr. Gentry is inclined to believe that the scoundrel he saw was there to do him damage rather than to appropriate his possessions, although he knows of no enemy mean enough to do such a thing. He described the man he saw as being low and stoutly built, but while not positive about his color, thinks he was white.

There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives me as much relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balm does. I have been using it for about two years, four bottles in all, as occasion required, and always keep a bottle on my shelf. I believe I know a good thing when I get hold of it, and Pain Balm is the best I have ever met with. W. B. Denny, dairyman, New Lexington, O., so cent bottles for sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford.

The promptness and certainty of its cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping coughs, and is the most effective remedy known for these diseases. Mr. C. B. Main, of Union City, Pa., says: "I have a great sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I warrant every bottle and have never heard of one failing to give entire satisfaction." 50 cent bottles for sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford.

While Mr. T. J. Richey, of Atlanta, Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus. He called at a drug store to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief, and a few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.

In Glass.
That's the way Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets come. And it's a more important point than you think. It keeps them always fresh and reliable, unlike the ordinary pills in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes.
They're put up in a better way, and they act in a better way, than the huge, old-fashioned pills. No griping, no violence, no reaction afterward with chills and morbid. He called at a drug store to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief, and a few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford.

—George Hamilton and John Portwood, Madison county farmers, fought over an old grudge, when Portwood was hit with a stone, perhaps fatally wounding him.
